MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Personnel

SUBJECT : Memo dated 5 January 1967 from C/CSPS

1. Procedures have been established to prevent recurrence of excessive reimbursement cited in subject memorandum.

2. As indicated in Paragraph 3 of the memo, the circumstances are unique; however, they could occur again. In the future, strength accountability will be transferred to the gaining unit at an early date when enroute training is performed by military personnel returning to their parent service.

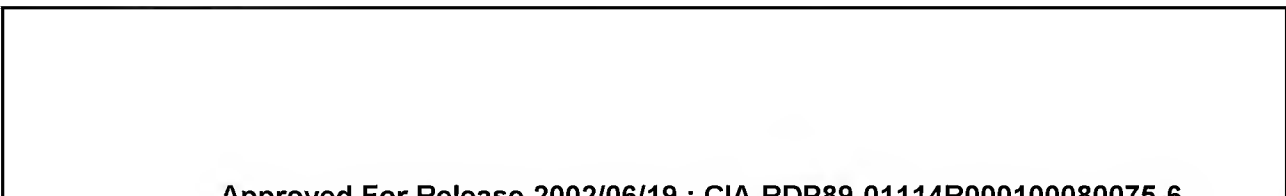

3. This office has made a concerted effort to insure proper and timely accounting of military personnel to insure that the Agency reimburses the Department of Defense only for those amounts properly due. A change of data processing procedures initiated by MMPD in September 1966 resulted in a first quarter FY 67 savings of $11,320. The assistance rendered by Clandestine Services in bringing to our attention instances of this nature is appreciated and
